Looked-After and Previously Looked-After Children Policy

Head Teacher: Mrs Laura Green

Chair of Governors: Mr Robert Culyer

Rationale

Schools are key in helping to raise the educational standards and improving the life chances of looked-after and previously looked-after children, and in tackling the causes of social exclusion through careful planning, monitoring and evaluation. Schools can also provide a source of continuity and “normality” for children who may have been subject to emotional distress, abuse, and disruption. School can be the place where children maintain friendships and a place where they feel safe and can be themselves.

Raising levels of achievement has been strongly and clearly highlighted as a major part of improving the life chances of looked-after and previously looked-after children and schools play a pivotal role in this.

Definition

The term “looked-after” was introduced by the Children Act 1989. This refers to a child who is either accommodated (whereby the local authority provides for the child on an agreed basis with the person who has parental responsibility) or is subject to a care order (whereby a court order grants shared parental responsibility to the local authority in order to protect and promote a child’s welfare). Children in both instances could be living with foster carers, in a residential unit, in a residential school, with relatives, or even with parents on a part or full time basis.

A previously ‘looked-after’ child is one who is no longer looked after in England and Wales because they have been the subject of adoption, special guardianship or a ‘child arrangements’ order which includes arrangements relating to whom the child is living with, or when the child is to live with any person, or has been adopted from ‘state care’ outside England and Wales.

Legal Framework

Section 20 of the Children and Young Persons Act 2008 (‘the 2008 Act’)

Section 20A of the 2008 Act inserted by section 5 of the Children and Social Work Act 2017 (‘the 2017 Act’)

Section 2E of the Academies Act 2010 inserted by section 6 of the 2017 Act

The Designated Teacher (Looked-After Pupils etc.) (England) Regulations 2009

Statutory guidance from the Department for Education (February 2018) refers to the above legislation and requires schools to have effective policies for supporting and promoting the education of looked-after and previously looked-after children

Schools must:

- Ensure access to a balanced and broadly based education to all looked-after and previously looked-after children
- Prioritise recording and improving the academic achievement of all looked-after and previously looked-after children

Tacolneston & Morley CE VA Primary Schools Federation

- Prioritise a reduction in the number of exclusions and trancies for all looked-after and previously looked-after children
- Ensure there is a designated teacher to advocate for the rights of looked-after and previously looked-after children
- Develop systems of communications and protocols
- Promote the attendance of looked-after and previously looked-after children

Objectives

We will:

- Work alongside social workers to ensure that each looked-after child has a current Personal Education Plan in place.
- Provide a climate of acceptance and challenge negative stereotypes.
- Ensure all children who are looked-after or previously looked-after have the same opportunities to participate fully in the National Curriculum, careers guidance, extra curricular activities, and enjoy the school experience fully in line with corporate parenting principles.
- Ensure discretion when addressing a child's care status and ensure there is sensitivity to the background of children who are looked-after or previously looked-after, especially surrounding work on family.
- Ensure the designated teacher is provided with regular training, and that they cascade this training to school staff as appropriate.
- Seek to review all school policies regularly in the light of the LEA's Social Inclusion guidance, Special Educational Needs Legislation, and Department for Education guidance.
- Ensure that a clear protocol for sharing of information will be followed both within our schools and with outside agencies.
- Endeavor to support all looked-after and previously looked-after children educated in our schools to achieve to their fullest possible academic potential.

Roles and Responsibilities

Many looked-after and previously looked-after children do not want school staff to be aware of their care status because it makes them feel "different". Therefore, we will negotiate with the child to identify who should be aware of their care status. However we do acknowledge that in some cases, such as if the child has a severe learning difficulty, this may not be possible.

The named Governor will work in co-operation with the Head Teacher/Designated Teacher as the named staff responsible for ensuring that all looked-after and previously looked-after children have equal access to all learning opportunities in line with their peers. The Head Teacher/Designated Teacher also has specific responsibilities for supporting the rest of the staff in their training and work with looked-after and previously looked-after children.

The named Governor should be satisfied that :

- the school has a coherent policy for looked-after and previously looked-after children
- the school's policies and procedures are reviewed in the light of social inclusion guidance and DFE guidelines
- the designated teacher has received appropriate training
- looked-after and previously looked-after children have equal access to all areas of the curriculum
- the Governing body receives reports at each Full Governing Body Meeting and an annual report

The Head Teacher will:

Tacolneston & Morley CE VA Primary Schools Federation

- appoint the designated teacher
- ensure that the designated teacher has received appropriate training
- oversee the development of the policy on looked-after and previously looked-after children
- be responsible for all systems to support looked-after and previously looked-after children.
- report to the governing body on an annual basis on the following:
  - the number of looked after pupils in the school
  - an analysis of test scores as a discrete group, compared to other pupils
  - the attendance of pupils, compared to other pupils
  - the level of fixed term and permanent exclusions, compared to other pupils
  - the number of complaints

The Designated Teacher

The designated teacher will serve as the contact for social services and the education department and will maintain responsibility for several key areas to support looked-after and previously looked-after children within the school. This includes serving as an advocate for all looked-after and previously looked-after children in the school.

The designated teacher will help establish and maintain the ethos regarding looked-after and previously looked-after children of the school by:

- maintaining and respecting confidentiality of all looked-after and previously looked-after children and ensuring information is shared on a strictly 'need to know' basis
- ensuring that all staff, through appropriate training, are aware of the difficulties and educational disadvantages faced by looked-after and previously looked-after children and understand the need for positive systems to support them, whilst maintaining appropriately high expectations for their educational achievements
- acting as an advocate for looked-after and previously looked-after children in order to allow them equal access to educational opportunities and support with important decisions affecting future life chances

The designated teacher will set up systems to monitor and record the progress of all looked-after and previously looked-after children. She will:

- have an overview and co-ordinating role for gathering and holding all information regarding children who are looked-after or previously looked-after
- maintain records regarding all looked-after and previously looked-after children, including legal status and information regarding who should be contacted regarding matters concerning the child
- establish a system for contacting and forwarding educational records to new schools to facilitate a smooth and speedy transfer
- monitor the educational progress of all looked-after and previously looked-after children and intervene, in co-operation with other agencies if required, if there is evidence of underachievement, absence from school or internal truancy, or other similar concern

The designated teacher will facilitate effective communication by:

- building positive home-school relationships between parents / carers with regular opportunities for dialogue
- being proactive and participating in setting goals for the child's Personal Education Plan

Tacolneston & Morley CE VA Primary Schools Federation

- playing an active role in care planning by ensuring that the attendance of the most appropriate member of staff and/or written reports are provided to all statutory reviews of looked-after children
- helping co-ordinate education and PEP meetings
- serving as the named contact for colleagues in social services and education
- ensuring effective communication between all relevant parties
- inviting the responsible social worker to all meetings, and liaising with this social worker regarding the development of Personal Education Plans (PEP).

The designated teacher will monitor each child's achievement and ensure that they have the support they require within school:

Tacolneston & Morley CE VA Primary Schools Federation

- by meeting with the looked-after child to discuss who needs to know they are looked-after and to ensure that the young person is informed of their role
- By meeting with the adoptive parents and the previously looked-after child to discuss who needs to know they are previously looked-after if this is appropriate
- by ensuring each child has a named member of staff who can provide advice and/or practical help on academic or pastoral issues (this maybe the class teacher in a primary school)
- by ensuring each child has a Personal Education Plan
- by requesting support from the SENCO and/or outside agencies, including The Virtual School for Norfolk, if a looked-after child requires additional academic or behavioural support
- by working closely with the SENCO to ensure all looked-after and previously looked-after children with special educational needs are being assessed and are getting appropriate resources to support their learning
- by having a strategy for key stage or new school transitions
- by encouraging all children to continue on to further or higher education
- by ensuring all looked-after and previously looked-after children are made to feel a part of the school environment

The Designated Teacher in our Federation is Laura Green

Personal Education Plans

Each looked-after child will have a Personal Education Plan (PEP), which their social worker will take the lead in developing. However, the school's role in this plan is crucial and at least one member of staff who knows the child well will attend the meeting to establish and subsequently review this. Other staff will contribute in writing as appropriate.

The PEP will consider:

- the child's strength's and weaknesses
- interests, both in and out of school
- developmental and educational and pastoral needs
- future plans, and how these can be supported
- issues arising for the child
- It will also identify targets that will be reviewed during the next PEP meeting.

Admission/Induction Arrangements

Looked-after and previously looked-after children are a priority for admission and, as such, we will follow the LEA's published admission criteria.

On admission, the child will meet with the designated teacher and their named member of staff. They will discuss any relevant issues, academic or pastoral, and ensure the child is made to feel comfortable in our school. Records will be requested from the child's previous school and as soon as practicable after they are received a meeting will be held with the carer / parent, social worker, and other relevant professionals, and child as appropriate. This will provide information to inform the child's new Personal Education Plan, and ensure that communication systems are established early.

In the first PEP meeting, we will seek clarification from the social worker as to who requires school reports and who may give permission for school trips or other such activities. At this meeting any means of communication to aid the fluid exchange of information between statutory meetings will be discussed and agreed (such as a home/school book to detail any sudden significant changes in a child's circumstances.)

School Trips and Special Activities

Given the delays that looked-after children experience in getting parental consent for school trips and activities, we will aim to ensure that looked-after children enjoy the same extra-curricular opportunities as other children by reserving placements for them on trips or on activities.

Complaints

If a young person, parent or social worker wishes to complain about the provision or policy, they should in the first instance raise it with the designated teacher, who will try to resolve the situation.

If the issue cannot be resolved within 10 days, the young person, carer or social worker can submit a formal complaint in writing to the Head teacher. The Head teacher will investigate the complaint and respond within 10 working days.

Any issues that remain unresolved at this stage should be addressed through a meeting in order to assess the impact of any such complaint upon the young person's education. This meeting may include the named Governor and any other outside agency that both parties deem necessary to attend. This meeting should normally be held within 10 working days of the Head teacher's response.
